UNITED STATES TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO SEVENTH INTERIM AND FINAL APPLICATION OF BUTLER SNOW LLP FOR ALLOWANCE OF ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF NECESSARY EXPENSES

Comes now David W. Asbach, Acting United States Trustee for Region 5, by and through undersigned counsel, and files this objection to the Seventh Interim and Final Application of Butler Snow LLP for Allowance of Administrative Claim for Compensation and Reimbursement of Necessary Expenses (Dkt. # 1047) in the above styled and numbered cause, and in support thereof will show unto the Court as follows, to wit:

1. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330 and § 331, the court, after notice and hearing, may award a professional person employed under § 327 or § 1103, reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by said professional person and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses. An applicant must establish that its services were necessary to the administration of the bankruptcy case or reasonably likely to benefit the bankruptcy estate at the time the services were rendered. Barron & Newburger, PC v. Tex. Skyline, Ltd. (In re Woerner), 783 F.3d 266, 276 (5th Cir. 2015). Additionally, fees must bear some reasonable relationship to the estate. In re Sapolin Paints, Inc., 38 B.R. 807, 812 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1984). Expenses incurred are deemed necessary if they are incurred because they were properly required to accomplish the task for which the professional was employed, and when they do not raise a substantial question of necessity in light of all available alternatives. Factors employed to determine the reasonableness of compensation for services are also applicable with regard to reimbursement of expenses. While § 330(a)(1)(b) authorizes reimbursement of expenses, it does not create an automatic entitlement to reimbursement. The applicant carries the burden of establishing that the applicant is entitled to an allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses. In re Consolidated Bancshares, Inc., 785 F.2d 1249, 1257 (5th Cir. 1986); In re Waldoff's, Inc., 132 B.R. 329, 332 (Bankr. S.D. Miss. 1991).

2. As noted in the application, the Court reserved the rights of Butler Snow LLP ("Butler Snow") and the United States Trustee with respect to certain fees requested in Butler Snow's First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Applications for Interim Allowance of Administrative Claim for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses. The fees in question generally fall into three categories: (1) time expended by white collar criminal lawyers; (2) time expended in defense of Butler Snow's Fourth Application for Interim Allowance of Administrative Claim for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses; and (3) paraprofessional services which the United States Trustee asserts are clerical in nature and therefore non-compensable.

- 3. Butler Snow's first interim application for compensation requests $17,088.00 in fees for time expended by white collar criminal lawyers.² According to the United States

 Trustee's calculation, these fees are overstated by $975.00.³
- 4. A debtor generally has no right to use estate assets to fund his criminal defense. As noted in In re Stoecker, 114 B.R. 965, 970 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1990):

As a general rule, a debtor has no right to use estate assets to fund his criminal defense. In re Duque, 48 B.R. 965 (S.D.Fla.1984); Official Committee of Disputed Litigation Creditors v. McDonald Invest., Inc., 42 B.R. 981 (N.D.Tex.1984); In re Southern Commodity Corp., 85 B.R. 892 (Bankr.S.D.Fla.1988); In re United Church of the Ministers of God, 84 B.R. 50 (Bankr.E.D.Pa.1988); In re Moore, 57 B.R. 270 (Bankr.W.D.Okla.1986); In re Tashof, 33 B.R. 225 (Bankr.D.Md.1983); In re Pajarito American Indian Art, Inc., 11 B.R. 807 (Bankr.D.Ariz.1981). Courts have rejected the argument that it was in the best interest of the estate to employ criminal counsel or to pay the cost of services relating to a debtor's criminal defense.

5. Such services generally benefit the debtor as opposed to the bankruptcy estate. In order for these services to be compensable it is incumbent on Butler Snow to show how said services benefitted the estate.

³ The United States Trustee calculated Mr. Parker's services rendered through February 29, 2016, at 16.8 hours rather than 19.80 hours.

- 6. Butler Snow's fourth application for interim compensation requests $337.50 for services related to Express Scripts' objection to Butler Snow's third application for interim compensation.⁴
- 7. Fees and expenses incurred in defending a fee application are not compensable by a bankruptcy estate. Baker Botts, L.L.P. v. ASARCO LLC, 135 S. Ct. 2158 (2015).
- 8. Paralegal work can be recovered as attorneys' fees if the work is legal in nature, rather than clerical. Vela v. City of Houston, 276 F.3d 659, 681 (5th Cir. 2001). The United States Trustee contends that Butler Snow seeks compensation for paralegal services which are clerical rather than legal.
- 9. The application seeks $5,151.50 in compensation for the "Review of ECF Notices and calendar dates for attorneys." In In re Goodbar, 456 B.R. 644, 650 (Bankr. W.D. Va. 2011), the court denied compensation for paralegal work described as "CM/ECF Notice" stating:

The Court, however, takes issue with some of the charges Mr. Brown includes in his request for compensation. Mr. Brown includes charges made by Ela Berbic Brown, Mr. Brown's paralegal, for work done on what he terms "CM/ECF Notice." The Court's own experience is that CM/ECF Notice relates to the notice received by attorneys when they file documents on the Court's electronic filing system. Any time spent reviewing these notices and "updating the client's file," as Mr. Brown describes the work performed, is merely clerical in nature and therefore, does not qualify for compensation under § 330. In re C & J Oil Co., Inc., 81 B.R. 398, 404 (Bankr.W.D.Va.1987). In total, Ms. Brown spent .46 hours doing such work. Ms. Brown charges $100.00 per hour. Thus, the total cost for Ms. Brown's work on the

⁵ These services were performed by a paralegal billed at 165.00 per hour in the first, second and third interim fee applications. The rate increased to $170.00 in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh interim fee applications.

CM/ECF matters is $46.00. Since such work constitutes clerical work and is not entitled to compensation the Court will reduce the amount awarded to Mr. Brown by $46.00.

10. In In re Mailhot, 2016 Bankr. LEXIS 1849, *3 - *4 (D. Me. Apr. 27, 2016) the court found that managing an attorney's calendar and routine filings on the court's CM/ECF system albeit important does not involve the delivery of substantive legal work. The court stated:

A properly trained legal assistant or secretary should be able to manage an attorney's calendar and to make routine filings on the Court's CM/ECF system. Completing these tasks requires a considerable amount of training and a significant amount of attention to detail; it does not involve the delivery of substantive legal work. Deadlines are important in a bankruptcy case, and often there are many of them. The correct use of the Court's CM/ECF system is also important, and helps ensure that a case is efficiently administered. But maintaining a calendar and making routine filings on the CM/ECF system do not involve the delivery of substantive legal work. As a result, those services are not compensable under section 330. See In re Parrilla, 530 B.R. 1, 20-25 (Bankr. D.P.R. 2015); In re Bass, 227 B.R. 103, 108 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1998). (footnote omitted)

11. A similar result regarding clerical charges was reached in In re Hungry Horse, LLC, 2017 Bankr. LEXIS 2377, *8 - *9 (Bankr. D. N.M. Aug. 23, 2017) where the court held:

Clerical tasks, even when performed by paralegals or attorneys, generally are not compensable. In re Lady Baltimore Foods, Inc., 2004 Bankr. LEXIS 1431, 2004 WL 2192368, at *1 (Bankr. D. Kan.) (services such as typing and data entry are clerical in nature and not compensable); In re Lorenzen, 2010 Bankr. LEXIS 1726, 2010 WL 5524696, *1 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 2010); In re First State Bancorp., 2014 Bankr. LEXIS 1138, 2014 WL 1203141, at *5 (Bankr. D.N.M.). Routine court filing is considered clerical, and courts in this district have denied fees for e-filing. In re Weaver, 2011 Bankr. LEXIS 903, 2011 WL 867136 (Bankr. D.N.M.); In re First State Bancorp., 2014 Bankr. LEXIS 1138, 2014 WL 1203141 at *5, n. 18 (submitting orders for entry was clerical). See also Scadden v. Weinberg, Stein and Associates, LLC, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 57939, 2013 WL 1751294 (D. Colo. 2013) (in non-bankruptcy FDCPA case, e-filing determined to be clerical).

Work that appears clerical may not necessarily be so. In re Lady Baltimore Foods, Inc., 2004 Bankr. LEXIS 1431, 2004 WL 2192368, at *2. It could be, for example, that some complex e-filing in chapter 11 cases may be compensable. See, e.g., In re McNally, 2006 Bankr. LEXIS 1712, 2006 WL 2348687, at *7-8, 12, and 15 (Bankr. D. Colo.) (e-filing and other tasks that appear clerical may be compensable where the task involves professional or para-professional judgment); Doe v. Ward, 282 F. Supp. 2d 323, 334-35 (E.D. Pa. 2003) (in complex litigation, it is often appropriate for an attorney to perform and be compensated for discovery-related clerical tasks); In re CF & I Fabricators of Utah, Inc., 131 B.R. 474, 492 (Bankr. D. Utah. 1991) (time is compensable where it requires education or experience above that commonly held by secretarial or clerical staff).

12. In Cruz v. Hauck, 762 F.2d 1230, 1235 (5th Cir. 1985), the Fifth Circuit held that an attorney's fee request should not be denied in its entirety even though a substantial portion of the fees submitted consisted of clerical matters. A finding that some of the hours claimed were for clerical work may justify compensating that time at a lower rate or may justify a reduction in the number of compensable hours; however, it did not justify the complete denial of the fee request. The Fifth Circuit stated:

In Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir.1974), we established guidelines for district courts to consider in evaluating requests for attorney's fees. One of these factors is the time and labor required:

It is appropriate to distinguish between legal work, in the strict sense, and investigation, clerical work, compilation of facts and statistics and other work which can often be accomplished by non-lawyers but which a lawyer may do because he has no other help available. Such non-legal work may command a lesser rate." (emphasis added)

13. The United States Trustee submits that Cruz is distinguishable. This is not a case where the applicant was required to perform clerical work because no other help was available. Butler Snow has 24 offices throughout the United States as well as offices in London and

Singapore. Work by paralegals may only be recovered to the extent that the paralegal performs work traditionally done by an attorney; otherwise, paralegal expenses are unrecoverable overhead expenses. Allen v. United States Steel Corp, 665 F.2d 689, 697 (5th Cir. 1982).⁶

14. The application also seeks $50,275.00 in compensation to finalize and electronically file various documents, service of various documents on the parties, and to upload proposed orders into the Court's CM/ECF system.⁷ The United States Trustee contends that these services are clerical rather than legal based on the previously cited authorities.⁸

WHEREFORE, the United States Trustee prays for an order sustaining his objection to the Seventh Interim and Final Application of Butler Snow LLP for Allowance of Administrative Claim for Compensation and Reimbursement of Necessary Expenses for the reasons set forth herein.

⁶ The court in Carroll v. Sanderson Farms, Inc., 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16890 (S.D. Tex. Feb. 11, 2014) citing Au v. Funding Grp., Inc., 933 F. Supp. 1264, 1276 (D. Haw. 2013) noted the following nonexhaustive list of ministerial, non-compensable task: reviewing Court-generated notices; scheduling dates and deadlines; calendaring dates and deadlines; notifying a client of dates and deadlines; preparing documents for filing with the Court; informing a client that a document has been filed; personally delivering documents; bates stamping and other labeling of documents; maintaining and pulling files; copying, printing, and scanning documents; receiving, downloading, and emailing documents; and communicating with Court staff.

⁷ See Exhibit 'D'. These services were also performed by a paralegal and billed at $165.00 per hour in the first, second and third interim fee applications. The rate increased to $170.00 in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh interim fee applications.

⁸ There are some services intertwined with theses entries that the United States Trustee does not deem objectionable.

The United States Trustee further prays for all general and equitable relief to which entitled.

Respectfully Submitted,

DAVID W. ASBACH Acting United States Trustee Region 5, Judicial Districts of Louisiana and Mississippi
